Part 1: Sat 17 Oct 2020 | Part 2: Sat 24 Oct 2020 | 10am - 12pm on ZOOM | Speaker: Esther Tan, Lecturer, School of Counselling, Singapore Bible College

"The first duty of love is to listen" Paul Tillich

Most Christians have noble motivations to show care and offer help to others. Some do not know how to begin, while others think of offering practical help, advice or solutions. While well-intended, these do not necessarily fulfil God's purpose for the Church in being an edifying and healing community. Healthy relationships begin with good conversations and that comes with good listening. Although the skills of listening involve a complex and multi-faceted process, they can be learned. In this 2-part webinar, participants will gain basic theoretical understanding of (1) the core factors of good listening; (2) the concepts of five important skills of listening; and (3) the levels of listening that lead to understanding and connection. Register at <http://bit.ly/tmcactivelistening>. Organised for Trinity Methodist Church by TMC Family & Community. Contact: fnctmc@gmail.com
