International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church

We dedicate this day (and the whole of November) to pray for and pray with the persecuted believers.

That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:10 (NIV)

Let us respond today that we will not only pray for their safety and the termination of their persecution. We will also pray with them for the advance of the gospel in their land; that they will bear fruit that will last; and for perseverance and fearless courage in the face of suffering. Click this link to download World Watch List 2020:
